Pursuant to the Colorado Open Meetings Act, one or more of the above items may be considered in Executive Session, which is closed to the public, The Board will not take action while in executive session, but only upon reconvening in open session. It does not provide a public forum for citizens to express opinions. However, if the governmental body decides to allow citizens input, it must not unfairly discriminate, but may establish reasonable restraints on the number, length, and frequency of presentations. Any citizen wishing to address the Board regarding a grievance must follow the adopted grievance policy before approaching the Board. All requests must be made in writing and must be signed and dated. Requests may be sent to the notice of the superintendent at the administration office.
